The First Parish Church in Duxbury, Massachusetts was gathered in 1632 by Elder William Brewster. This, the fourth meeting house for the church, was erected in 1840. The bell was purchased from the Paul Revere Company in 1819. John and Priscilla Alden were among the first members. To the right of the church is the old town house.

M-15

1775—American Revolution Bicentennial—1975

One of a series of "HISTORAMA"® full color Post Cards, Booklets Slides of Historic Massachusetts. Write for complete catalog © 1968 Yankee Colour Corp Southborough Mass.

YANKEE COLOUR®

place stamp here
36048

An HISTORAMA®

Post Card

ADDRESS